

I want more choices for ISPs, not less. Don't let the baby bells squash the smaller ISPs. If you let them, they undoubtedly will. That means less choice, less quality and higher prices from less competition. Thank you.